

FOREWORD

In 1957 a review of the work done by the First Legislative Assembly under the Constitution from 1952 to 1957 was published by this Department. It proved a valuable book of reference both to the Members and staff of this Department. It has therefore been considered necessary to publish a review of the work done by the Second Assembly from 1957 to 1962 and hence the present publication.

This review gives a short account of the constitutional developments subsequent to the issue of the first one. It also gives a brief account of the business transacted during 1957-62 and, at the same time, briefly explains the rules and conventions followed. More statistical information has also been included.

A number of photographs depicting some important activities of the Legislative Assembly and visits of Parliamentary Delegations and Parliamentarians have also been included.
