THE TAMIL NADU ²LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY
TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE RULES, 1955.

[G.O. Ms. No. 2258 Public (Elections), dated 18th July 1955.]

In exercise of the powers conferred by Sections 9, 12 and 14 of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951), and in supersession of the ²Tamil Nadu Legislature Travelling Allowance Rules, 1955 the Governor of Tamil Nadu hereby makes the following rules:—

RULES

1. (a) These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu ²Legislative Assembly Travelling Allowance Rules, 1955.

(b) These rules shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st April 1955.

(c) In these rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(i) 'Act' means the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951);

(ii) 'Assembly' means the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly;

¹(ii-A) 'Authorised Officer' means the officer counter-signing the travelling Allowance bills of Members, authorised by the Secretary;

²(iii) Omitted.

²(iv) 'Committee' means a Committee appointed or elected by the Assembly or nominated by the Speaker under the rules of the Assembly and includes a Select Committee, but does not include any Committee appointed by the State Government;

(v) 'Constitution' means the Constitution of India;

² Vide G.O. Ms. No. 479, Public (Establishment-I), dated 22nd April 1992.

³(viii) 'Member' means the Member of the Assembly;

(ix) 'Secretary' means the Secretary to the Assembly;

¹(x) 'Speaker' means the Speaker of the Assembly chosen as such under Articles 178 of the Constitution; and

²(xi) 'Tour' means-

(a) a tour undertaken by a Committee in connection with its functions within the State; and

(b) a tour arranged by the State Government for groups of Members to various places within the State to study the developmental activities.

³2.(a) The Speaker shall be eligible for travelling allowance for one journey from his usual place of residence to Chennai or to any other place fixed under Article 174 of the Constitution for a meeting of the Assembly and for one journey back there from to his usual place of residence in respect of each session of the Assembly.

³(b) The Speaker shall be eligible for Travelling Allowance-

(i) for journey ³performed for attending Conferences or Committees of Presiding Officers of Legislatures whether held inside or outside India.

² Vide G.O.Ms.No.55, Legislative Assembly, dated 27th November, 1962.

³ Vide G.O.Ms.No.479, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 22nd April 1992.

⁴ Vide G.O.Ms.No.488, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 2nd April 1992.

(ii) for journeys in connection, with visiting other Legislatures either inside or outside India; and

¹(iii) for journeys performed anywhere in India for participating in any public function or official function or for receiving civic address.

(c) The Headquarters of the Speaker shall during a session, be deemed to be at the place fixed for a meeting of the Assembly under Article 174 of the Constitution and at all other times deemed to be at his usual place of residence.

(d) The Speaker shall not be eligible for daily allowance for the days of the meeting of the Assembly.

(e) The Speaker shall be entitled to take with him during his journeys under this rule, his Personal Assistant and one ²Office Assistant and they shall be entitled to travelling allowance for such journeys in accordance with the Travelling Allowance Rules applicable to Government servants drawing similar pay.

3. For journeys of the nature described in rule 2, performed by the Speaker, travelling and daily allowances shall be admissible at the rates upon the conditions applicable to Ministers and specified in the Tamil Nadu Ministers Travelling Allowance Rules, 1951 issued with G.O.Ms.No.42 Finance, dated 23rd January 1952, as amended from time to time, and all references in those rules to a Minister shall for purposes of this rule, be construed as references to the Speaker.

³4. The Speaker may present bills for travelling allowance without the counter-signature of a controlling officer. The Speaker shall furnish a certificate to the effect that the journey was for a public or official function as the case may be, but need not specify in the travelling allowance bill, the nature of details of the function in connection with which the journey was performed.

5. The Speaker may once in respect of each Session of the Assembly, draw the actual cost of transporting, at owner's risk,

(i) for each day of attendance at the meeting;

¹(ii) for two days before and the day after a continuous meeting of the Assembly and for one day before ²and one day after the meeting of any committee, as the case may be provided that the member is present at the place of meeting on those days; and

(iii) for days of adjournment in the course of a continuous meeting, provided that the member is present at the place of the meeting on those days and provided further that the member attends the sitting on the day before adjournment as well as on the day of the re-assembly.

*Explanation:—*A meeting shall be deemed to be continuous, if the number of days between the last day of a meeting and the first day of another meeting whether held in the same place or not is not more than ³four.

(d) (i) During an adjournment in the course of a continuous meeting, if a member leaves the place of meeting, he may draw either the daily allowance admissible to him under clause (ii) of sub-rule (a) for a period of adjournment or a single railway fare of the highest class of accommodation available in the train, other than air-conditioned ⁴I class accommodation ⁴or the portion performed by railway of the journey to and from his usual place of residence, whichever is less provided he attends the sitting on the day before the adjournment as well as on the day of the re-assembly.

(ii) During the adjournment of a meeting for a period exceeding five days if a member does not return to his usual place of residence and attends the sitting on the date on which it re-assembles after the adjournment, he may draw either the daily allowance admissible to him under clause (ii) of sub-rule (a) for the period of adjournment or the Travelling Allowance which would have been admissible to him if he had returned to his usual place of residence under clause (i) of sub-rule (a) whichever is less.

(iii) If during an adjournment, a member proceeds from one place of meeting to another place of meeting he may draw travelling allowance for the journey between the two places and daily allowance for the days of halt during the period of adjournment at either or both the places of meeting at the rates admissible to him under the rules, provided he attends the meeting on the day before adjournment as well as on the day of the re-assembly.

Explanation:—(1) The expression 'adjournment' means interval between one meeting and another and may consist of holidays or non-holidays or of both.

(2) Daily allowance is admissible for the day of arrival in Chennai, if a member arrives in the forenoon and for day of departure from Chennai, if a member departs in the afternoon.

²(f) Where a member during a continuous sitting has attended the meeting for not less than seven days and returns to his usual place of residence, he may draw a single railway fare of the highest class of accommodation available in the train other than air-conditioned ³I Class accommodation plus fractional fare and mileage to and fro as provided in the rules.

⁴ (ff) Every member, who travels with his/her spouse shall once during every session of the Assembly be entitled to one ³ railway fare of the highest class of accommodation available in the train other than air-conditioned I class railway fare for his/her spouse from the usual place of residence to the place where the session of the Legislative Assembly is held and for the return journey from such place.

(g) A Member who participates in a tour may draw-

(i) for one journey from his usual place of residence to the place where the tour commences and from there to the places visited by the committee and for one journey back there from to his usual place of residence travelling allowance at the rates admissible to him under clause (i) of sub-rule (a): and

(ii) daily allowance for the period of the tour at the rates admissible to him under clause (ii) of sub-rule (a) inclusive of the day on which the tour commences or ends.

*Explanation:—*The dates of commencement and conclusion of a tour shall be determined by the Chairman of the Committee.

(h) If free transport is provided for a member of Committee for any portion of the tour, no allowances other than daily allowance shall be admissible to him for that portion of the tour. But, if a member of a committee does not avail himself of the free transport for any portion of the tour, he may draw travelling allowance for that portion of the journey at the rates admissible to him under these rules.

¹(i) If free boarding and lodging are provided for a member of a committee on tour, he shall draw only one-fourth of the daily allowance admissible to him under these rules. If only boarding or lodging is allowed free to a member, he shall draw daily allowance at one-half of the rates admissible to him under these rules.

(j) Whenever the member attend meetings at Ootacamund or Kodaikanal or whenever tours are undertaken by committees to such places the rates of daily allowance and mileage shall be increased by 50 per cent.

9. (a) A member's "usual place of residence" shall be such place as may be specified and certified by him and registered in the office of the Assembly as such.

(b) If such place is within the State, travelling allowance may be drawn from and to that place.

(c) If such place is outside the State, travelling allowance admissible to a member shall be limited to the amount that may be drawn for a journey from and to-

(i) If he is an elected member, any one of the district head-quarters of the constituency which he represents; or

(ii) If he is a member nominated to the Assembly the district headquarters within the State which is nearest to his usual place of residence.

(d) No change of the usual place of residence will be recognised unless and until the member reports the change and certifies that such change has lasted for a continuous period of three months.

10. (a) Mileage allowance for a journey between two stations shall be calculated with reference to the shortest ordinary route or to the route which is declared by the State Government to be the shortest route for the purpose of the travelling allowance rules. When two or more routes are equally short, the allowance shall be calculated by the cheapest.

(b) If a member travels by a route which is not the shortest but is cheapest than the shortest his mileage allowance shall be calculated by the route actually used.

11. The military route book shall be taken as the authority for distances in the case of all journeys, and the central points used

¹ Vide G.O. Ms.No.48, Public (Estt-I and Legislature), dated 13th September, 1962.

² Vide G.O.M.s. No.1523, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 9th November, 2000 (With effect from 9th November, 2000) in the military route book shall be taken as the fixed points at which journeys commence or end. When no such central point is given the distance shall be calculated with reference to the principal post office.

Explanation:—When a journey by road is combined with a journey by rail or steamer, unless such journey road be a journey to or from the member's usual place or residence, mileage allowance shall be calculated on the distance actually travelling without regard to the central point.

12. When a journey is performed by motor car or by air between places connected by a railway the charge shall ordinarily be limited to what would have been admissible had the member travelled by rail.

13. In calculating mileage allowance, fractions of a ¹KM shall be omitted from the total of a bill for any one journey but not from the various items which make up the bill.

²14. A member who is residing at the place of the meeting or at the place of making or subscribing an oath or affirmation under Article 188 of the Constitution of India, when the Assembly is not in session, may draw Daily Allowance for each day of attendance at a meeting or for the day on which the oath or affirmation is made or subscribed as the case may be at the rate of ³Rs.500/- per day.

⁴15. Travelling allowance bills in respect of himself/ herself or his/her spouse shall be drawn up in Form 'A' or Form 'C' as the case may be annexed to these rules, stamped, if necessary and signed by the Member concerned and delivered at the office of the Secretary for counter-signature. The travelling allowance bills so presented shall be counter-signed by the Secretary or by the Authorised Officer.

16. All claims for travelling allowance preferred after the expiry of one year from their becoming due shall be regarded as time-barred and the Secretary shall reject all such claims.

³17. Deleted.

18. ¹(a) When a Member who leaves his usual place of residence to attend a meeting is unable from any causes beyond his control:-

(i) either to complete the journey to the place specified in rule 8; or

(ii) after arriving at the place of meeting, actually to attend the meeting, he may be allowed travelling allowance from his usual place of residence to the place of meeting or to the place at which his journey was interrupted, as the case may be, and back, but shall not be entitled to any daily allowance.

(b) If and when a member proceeds from his usual place of residence to attend a meeting and if such meeting stands postponed or cancelled prior to its holding there of for any reason, though communications to that effect is sent to the Member concerned, he may be allowed travelling allowance from his usual place of residence to the place of meeting and back there from to his usual place of residence, but he shall not be entitled to any daily allowance.

²19. (a) A Member shall before claiming travelling allowance in respect of himself/herself or his/her spouse for the journey from his/her usual place of residence to the place of meeting or for the return journey from the place of meeting to his/her usual place of residence, fill in and sign Form 'B' or 'D' as the case may be, and deliver the same to the office of the Secretary.

Any member may have his travelling allowance bills prepared at the office of the Secretary, if he so desires.

1. Vide G.O.Ms.No.765, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature) dated 9th July, 1993.

2. Vide G.O.Ms.No.488, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature) Dated: 22nd April, 1992.

3. Vide G.O.Ms.No.32, Legislature, dated 16th May, 1959.

(b) (i) The travelling allowance bills of Members for their journey from their usual place of residence to the place of meeting will be paid by cheque at the office of the Secretary on bills countersigned by the Secretary ¹or by the Authorised Officer.

(ii) Bills similarly countersigned for the daily allowance permissible under these rules for actual days of attendance or halts during a meeting and for travelling allowance for the return journey to their usual place of residence may also be paid by cheque at the office of the Secretary even before the conclusion of the meeting.

(c) If a Member, who has been paid travelling allowance in advance for his journey, does not perform the proposed return journey, he shall report the fact to the office of the Secretary for communication to the ² 'Accountant-General', Tamil Nadu. The Accountant-General, Tamil Nadu, will intimate to the office of the Secretary, the amount recoverable from each Member. The Secretary will then take steps to recover the amount paid in excess either in cash or by recovery from the Member's next travelling allowance bill.

³19-A. Every Member shall be issued with an identity card containing his photograph attested by the Secretary, and it shall be treated as a pass referred to in, section 12(4-A) (a) of the Act.

⁴19-B. These rules shall apply Mutatis Mutandis to claims arising up to the 31st October 1986 in respect of members of the former Tamil Nadu Legislative Council.

⁵19-C. In the event of the death of the member the travelling allowances and daily allowances due till the date of his death, shall be paid to his legal heir, after recovering the dues, if any, to the Legislative Assembly Secretariat or to the Government.

20. The State Government may, by order, relax the provisions of these rules in any particular case to such extent or subject to such conditions or modification as may be specified in such order and also fix the rates of travelling and daily allowances applicable to the case.

THE TAMIL NADU ² LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE (ELECTION TO THE COUNCIL OF STATES) RULES, 1952.

[Vide G.O.Ms.No.886, Public (Elections), dated 2nd March 1952].

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 12 (1) (b) of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951), the Governor of Tamil Nadu is hereby pleased to make the following rules:—

RULES

1. (1) These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu ²Legislative Assembly Travelling Allowance (Election to the Council of States) Rules, 1952.

(2) These rules shall come into force at once.

2. These rules shall apply only to journeys undertaken by Members of the Legislative Assembly of the State for the purpose of voting at the election to fill a seat in the Council of States.

Provided that no allowances under these rules shall be drawn if the member is entitled to draw any other allowance from the Government in respect of the same journeys and halt on any account whatsoever.

¹. Vide G.O.Ms.No.138, Legislative Assembly, dated 31st October 1978.

². Vide G.O.Ms.No.480, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 22nd April 1992.

THE TAMIL NADU ² LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE (PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION) RULES, 1967

(G.O.Ms.No.17, Legislative Assembly, dated 25th April 1967.)

In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 12 and 14 of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951), the Governor of Tamil Nadu hereby makes the following rules:—

RULES

1. (1) These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu ²Legislative Assembly Travelling Allowance (Presidential Election) Rules, 1967.

(2) These rules shall come into force at once.

2. These rules shall apply only to journeys undertaken by the Members of the Legislative Assembly of the State for the purpose of voting at the Presidential Election.

Provided that no allowance under these rules shall be drawn if the member is entitled to draw any other allowance from the Government in respect of the same journeys and halt on any account whatsoever.

¹. Vide G.O.Ms.No.138, Legislative Assembly, dated 31st October 1978.

². Vide G.O.Ms.No.481, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 22nd April 1992.

THE TAMIL NADU ³LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY (MEDICAL ATTENDANCE AND TREATMENT) RULES, 1964.

[G.O.Ms.No.38, Education and Public Health (Health), dated 8th January 1964].

In exercise of the powers conferred by ¹sub-section (1) of section 14 of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951), read with ² section 10 and sub-section (4) of section 12 of the said Act and in supersession of all the rules on the subject, the Governor of Tamil Nadu hereby makes the following rules:—

RULES

1. (i) These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu ³Legislative Assembly (Medical Attendance and Treatment) Rules, 1964.

(ii) These rules shall be deemed to have come into force on the 6th of December 1962.

2.³A Minister, the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker or the Parliamentary Secretary shall for himself and the members of his family be entitled, free of charge to accommodation in hospitals maintained by the State Government and also to medical treatment and attendance, on the same terms and conditions as are applicable to the highest category of servants employed under the Government of Tamil Nadu.

3.They shall also be entitled to the supply of diet, free of charge.

4. The members of the ³Legislative Assembly shall ⁴for themselves and the members of their family for the entire period of their membership, be entitled to—

² Vide G.O.Ms.No.1441, Public (Legislature Wing), dated 8th September, 1987 (with effect from 13th March 1980).

³ Vide G.O.Ms.No.482, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 22nd April 1992.

⁴ Vide G.O.Ms.No.1925, Public (Establishment-I), dated 22nd August 1980.

⁴(i) accommodation in “A” class wards or “B” class wards whichever is available at the time of admission in the hospitals maintained by the State Government free of charge;

(ii) free medical treatment;

(iii) diet during their inpatient treatment free of charge and

(iv) concessions in regard to reimbursement of cost of drugs purchased in the open market ⁵as are admissible to Government servants of State Services:

¹Provided that orders issued in the Government Memorandum No.33699/T1/77-14, Health and Family Welfare Department, dated 29th May of 1978 will not apply to Members of the ³ Legislative Assembly.

⁶ Explanation 1.- For the purpose of this rule, the expression ‘family’ means-

(a) in the case of male Member of the ³Legislative Assembly-

(i) parents;

(ii) wife;

(iii) legitimate children (including an adopted son and daughter); and

(iv) step children residing with and wholly dependent on him. The word ‘wife’ includes more than one wife; and

(b) in the case of female Member of the ³Legislative Assembly—

¹ Vide G.O.Ms.No.500, Public (Establishment-I), dated 25th February 1980.

² Vide G.O.Ms.No.1925, Public (Establishment-I), dated 22nd August 1980.

THE TAMIL NADU LEGISLATORS' PENSION RULES, 1977.

[G.O.Ms.No.250, Public (Elections-VII),
dated 31st January 1977]

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 12-B, read with section 14 of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951), the Governor of Tamil Nadu hereby makes the following rules:-

RULES

1. Short title and Commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu Legislators' Pension Rules, 1977.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 9th December 1975.

2. Definition:—In these rules, unless the context otherwise require:-

(a) "Act" means the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries
Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951);

(b) "Assembly" means the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly;

by the Secretary to claim pension;

(bbb) "Bank" means a Nationalised Bank.

Explanation.—For purposes of this clause, "Nationalised Bank" means corresponding new Bank as defined in the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970
(Central Act 5 of 1970).

1. Vide G.O.Ms.No.1900, Public (Establishment-I), dated 18th August 1980.

²(c) "Council" means the Tamil Nadu Legislative Council which was abolished by the Legislative Council (Abolition) Act, 1986 (Central Act 40 of 1986);

³(cc) "Family Pensioner" means a person who is eligible to receive family pension under sub-section (2-B) of section 12-B of the Act."

(d) "Form" means a Form appended to these rules;

²(e) Explanation.—On and from the 1st day of November 1986 "the House" shall mean the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly.

³(ee) "Member" means the member of the assembly.

(f) "Pensioner" means a person who is "eligible to receive pension under sub-section (1) of the section 12-B of the Act.

(g) "Rules" means the Tamil Nadu Legislators' Pension Rules, 1977; and

(h) "Secretary" means the Secretary to the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly.

3. Sanctioning authority.—The Secretary shall be the authority competent to sanction pension to the persons entitled under the Act.

¹4. Application.—Application for the grant of pension under these rules shall be made to the Secretary in Form I. The application shall be accompanied by three copies of the passport size photograph of the person and four copies of his specimen signature duly attested by a person authorised by the Bank in which his pension is to be credited or by an Officer of any State or the Central Government having a seal of Office. For revival or revision of pension, the person shall send an application to the Secretary:

¹. Vide G.O.Ms.No.1900, Public (Establishment-I), dated 18th August 1980.

². Vide G.O.Ms.No.484, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 22nd April 1992.

³. Vide G.O.Ms.No.1397, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 21st December 2001.

Provided that all applications for grant, revival or revision of pension shall be made within a period of one year from the date of eligibility. If any application is received after the said period sanction shall take effect only from the month in which the application is made.

²Provided further that if the Secretary is satisfied that there are good and sufficient reasons for not making the application for the grant, revival or revision of pension in time he may order that the sanction shall take effect on and from the date of eligibility:

Provided also that the period of limitation for arrear claims of pension shall be three years from the date on which the amount claimed first becomes due for payment. Such payment shall be made only after investigation and after effecting a cut of fifteen per cent.

³*Explanation.*—The application shall be sent to the Secretary. In case, a pensioner is re-elected or nominated to the Assembly or the Parliament or any State Legislature, the pension shall be suspended and it shall be revived or revised, as the case may be on the basis of the total duration of membership, on his ceasing to be a Member, by the Secretary.

5. Sanction of Pension.—On receipt of the application for grant, revival or revision of pension and on being satisfied about the eligibility of the applicant for the pension in accordance with section 12-B of the Act, the Secretary shall make an order in Form II or Form III, for sanctioning, reviving or revising the pension, as the case may be, and communicate the order to the person concerned and to the Accountant-General, Chennai for purposes of audit.

Explanation.—For purposes of calculating the total period of membership, a month shall be reckoned as a calendar month or thirty days.

¹. Vide G.O.Ms.No.1900, Public (Establishment-I) dated 18th August 1980.

². Vide G.O.Ms.No.1160, Public (Legislature Wing) Department, Dated 11th July 1989 (with effect from 1st November 1986)

³. Vide G.O.Ms.No.484, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature) dated 22nd April 1992.

5-A. Suspension of pension.—If the payment of pension is suspended under the Act, the Secretary shall communicate an order to that effect in Form IV to the pensioner and to the Accountant-General, Chennai.

6. Claim and Payment of pension.—Pension shall be claimed by the Authorised Officer without any claim being preferred by the pensioner, in Form V by about the 25th of every month and credited to the accounts of the pensioner in the Bank in the month subsequent to the month to which it relates. The Bank shall furnish a receipt for the amount received by means of cheque:

¹Provided that if any pensioner desires to contribute whole or any part of the pension, in writing to a Fund sponsored by the State, or the Central Government the pension shall be claimed by the Authorised Officer and the amount of such contribution shall be credited to that Fund.

6-A. Indemnity bond by the Bank.—The Bank shall execute an indemnity bond in favour of the Governor of Tamil Nadu to indemnify the Government from and against any loss or damage suffered or incurred for crediting the pension to a wrong account or after the demise of a pensioner.

6-B. Declaration by pensioner.—Every pensioner shall furnish a declaration and a ²'Verification Certificate' obtained from the Bank in which he is having the account or from an Officer of any State, or the Central Government having a seal of office in Form VI to the Secretary direct, or through the Bank in which his pension is credited, ³on or before the 31st March of every year.

³ Vide G.O.Ms.No.329, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 22nd March 1996.

¹If such a declaration and a verification certificate are not furnished within a period of one year calculated from the first day of April every year, subsequent payment of pension shall take effect only from the month of receipt of such declaration and verification certificate.

7. Change of address.—It shall be the duty of the pensioner to intimate the change, if any, of his residence lasting for more than three months, to the Secretary.

8. Date of Payment of Pension.—The pension sanctioned under these rules shall be payable from the date specified in the order and shall not be commuted for a lumpsum. The pension shall become due for payment only on expiry of the month to which it relates.

9. Death of pensioner.—In the event of the death of the pensioner the amount of pension due till the date of his death, including unpaid arrears, shall be paid to his legal heir.

²9-A. Family Pension.—(1) A Member / Pensioner shall furnish the details of his/her family in form VII indicating the names of his/her family as defined in sub-section (2-B) of section 12-B of the Act, for family pension.

²(2) The family of a deceased member / pensioner, who is entitled to family pension under sub-section (2-B) of section 12-B of the Act shall apply in form VIII along with the particulars in form IX.

²(3) In the event of death of a Member / Pensioner, the Secretary, shall send a letter to the family of the deceased member/ pensioner requesting him/ her to apply for the family pension.

² Vide G.O.Ms.No.1397, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 21st December 2001.

¹(4) The period for which family pension is payable shall be as follows:—

(i) Wife in case of male member / pensioner or husband in the case of a female member / pensioner upto the date of death or remarriage, whichever is earlier;

(ii) Son who has not attained the age of twenty one years and unmarried daughter who has not attained the age of twenty four years including such son and daughter adopted legally;

(iii) Father and mother of the unmarried member / pensioner till their death.

¹(5) (a) (i) Where family pension is payable to more widows than one, the family pension shall be paid to widows in equal shares.

(ii) On the death of a widow, her share of the family pension shall become payable to her eligible child:

Provided that if the widow is not survived by any child, her share of the family pension shall be payable to the surviving widows in equal share or if there is only one surviving widow it shall be payable in full, to such widow.

(b) Where the deceased member/ pensioner is survived by a widow but has left behind the eligible child or children from another wife, who is not alive, the eligible child or children shall be entitled to the share of family pension which the mother would have received if she had been alive at the time of death of the pensioners:

Provided that on the share or shares of family pension payable to child or children or to widow or widows, ceasing to be payable, such share or shares shall be payable to other widow or widows and or to other child or children otherwise eligible, in equal shares, if there is only one widow or child, in full, to such widow or child.

(c) Where the deceased member / pensioner is survived by a widow, but has left behind eligible child or children from a divorced wife or wives, the eligible child or children of the divorced wife or wives shall be entitled to the share of family pension which divorced wife or wives would have received at the time of death of the member/ pensioner had she not been divorced:

Provided that on the share or shares of family pension payable to such a child or children or to widow or widows ceasing to be payable such share or shares shall be payable to the other widow or widows or to other child or children otherwise eligible, in equal shares, if there is only one such widow or child, in full, to such widow or child.

(6) (i) Except as provided in sub-rule (5), the family pension shall not be payable to more than one member of the family at a time.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule, the twins born at a single birth shall be treated as of the same age and made eligible for family pension in equal shares.

(ii) If a deceased member/ pensioner leaves behind a widow or widower, the family pension shall become payable to the widow or widower, failing which to the eligible child.

(iii) (a) If sons and unmarried daughters are alive, the eligible male or female child will be entitled for family pension in the order of their birth, irrespective of the sex and the immediate younger of him or her will be eligible for family pension only after the elder above him or her become ineligible for family pension.

(b) In the case of twins family pension is payable to such twins in equal shares. In the event of any one of the children ceasing to be ineligible for family pension, his or her share of family pension will become payable to the other such child and when both such children become ineligible for family pension the family pension will become payable to the next eligible child or twins as the case may be.

17. Where a deceased member/ pensioner leaves behind more children than one, the eldest eligible child shall be entitled to the family pension for the period mentioned in clause (ii) of sub-rule (5) and after the expiry of that period, the next child shall become eligible for the grant of family pension.

18. Where family pension is granted under this rule to a minor, it shall be payable to the guardian of the minor.

19-B. Sanction of family pension.—On receipt of the application for grant, revival or revision of family pension and on being satisfied about the eligibility of the applicant for the family pension, the Secretary shall issue an order in Form X or Form XI, for sanctioning, reviving or revising the pension as the case may be, and communicate the order to the person concerned and to the Accountant General, Chennai-18 for purpose of audit.

19-C. Suspension of family pension.—If the payment of family pension is suspended under the Act, the Secretary shall communicate an order to that effect in Form XII to the pensioner and to the Accountant-General, Chennai-18.

1. Vide G.O.Ms.No.1397, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 21st December 2001.

19-D. Claim and payment of family pension.—Family pension shall be claimed by the Authorised Officer without any claim being preferred by the family pensioner in Form XIII by the 25th of every month and credited to the accounts of the family pensioner in the Bank of the month subsequent to the month to which it relates. The Bank shall furnish a receipt for the amount received by means of cheque.

19-E. Declaration by family pensioner.—Every family pensioner shall furnish a life certificate from the Bank in which he/ she is having the account or from an Officer of any State, or the Central Government having a seal of Office in Form XIV to the Secretary direct, or through the Bank in which his/ her pension is credited, or before the 31st March of every year. If such a life certificate is not furnished within a period of one year calculated from the first day of April every year, subsequent payment of family pension shall take effect only from the month of receipt of such life certificate.

10. Mistake in the calculation of the pension period.—A pension sanctioned to any person under these rules is liable to be cancelled or modified if it is found that there has been any error in the valuation of the period of his eligibility for the grant of pension.

11. Over-payment or irregular payments, etc.—If any over-payments are made, the amounts so over paid shall be adjusted in the subsequent payment or recovered under the Tamil Nadu Revenue Recovery Act, 1864 (Tamil Nadu Act II of 1864), and if any irregular payments are made, such payments shall also be adjusted or recovered, as the case may be, in the same manner.

1. Vide G.O.Ms.No.1397, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 21st December 2001.

12. Recovery of dues, if any.—Dues, if any, towards arrears of Legislators Hostel Rent, Guest charges, Trunk-call and Phonogram charges, loss of Library Books or any other dues to the ²Legislative Assembly Secretariat or to the Legislative Council Secretariat and dues to the Government of Tamil Nadu payable in the capacity as a Member of the House, from the pensioner, shall be recovered from the pension payable to him.

12-A. Relinquishment and cancellation pension.—Any pensioner may, at any time, relinquish the whole or any portion of the pension payable to him under the Act and the relinquishment so made may be cancelled by him. Every relinquishment or cancellation thereof shall be made in writing and shall take effect from the first day of the month subsequent to the month in which it is made.

12-B. Claims of former Members of the Council.—These rules shall apply Mutatis Mutandis in respect of former Members of the Council.

13. Decision of the Secretary is final.—The decision of the Secretary on all matters covered by these rules shall be final.

THE TAMIL NADU LEGISLATORS' (RESIDENTIAL TELEPHONE INSTALLATION) RULES, 1980

[G.O. Ms.No.1464, Public (Establishment-I),
dated 28th June 1980.]

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 14, read with sub-section (4-C) of section 12 of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951), the Governor of Tamil Nadu hereby makes the following rules:-

RULES

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu Legislators (Residential Telephone Installation) Rules, 1980.

(2) These rules shall be deemed to have come into force on the 29th April 1979.

2. Definition.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:-

(i) "Act" means the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951).

(ii) "Member" means a Member of the ¹Legislative Assembly who does not hold any of the offices referred to in sections 3, 4, 6 and 6A of the Act;

(iii) "residence" means the place where a member ordinarily resides and from which he claims travelling allowance for attending meetings of the Legislative Assembly or the Committees thereof or his place of residence in the City of Chennai, and

(iv) "Secretary" means the Secretary to the Legislative Assembly.

¹. Vide G.O.Ms.No.486, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), Dated 22nd April 1992.

3. Application for telephone.—A Member desirous of having a telephone installed at his residence during the tenure of office as Member shall send an application in the form prescribed for the purpose by the Posts and Telegraphs Department to the District Manager, Telephones through the Secretary.

4. Installation and rental charges.—(1) The expenses on account of installation charges for the telephone installed at the residence of a Member shall be met by the State Government.

(2) Every member shall bear all other charges in relation to deposit, rent, local calls, trunkcalls and charges for re-connection shifting and the like.

5. Reimbursement.—Every Member shall meet the expenses on account of installation charges initially and shall be entitled for reimbursement of such charges as specified in sub-rule (i) of rule 4 on the application made to the Secretary. Such application shall be accompanied by a demand notice or document evidencing installation of the telephone, together with the receipt in token of having paid the amount:

Provided that such reimbursement shall be allowed towards installation charges in the case of telephone installed on or after 29th April 1979:

Provided further that such reimbursement of the amount paid by a Member towards installation of a telephone at his residence shall be allowed only once during his term as a Member.

6. Payment of Deposit.—(1) Every Member shall be eligible to get an interest-free advance from the State Government to meet the expenses in connection with payment towards deposit for installation of a telephone at his residence.

(2) Every such Member shall give an undertaking that he is agreeable for the recovery of the advance from his salary or pension.

(3) A Member on receipt of advice from the Posts and Telegraphs Department for remittance of deposit for the provision of a Telephone at his residence, may apply to the Secretary with the original advice received from the Posts and Telegraphs Department, for sanction of an interest free advance for the amount of deposit. On receipt of such application, the Secretary shall arrange for the payment of the deposit amount to the Member through cheque drawn in favour of the Posts and Telegraphs Department or such other authority as may be decided from time to time.

7. Recovery of the deposit amount:—(1) The advance sanctioned under rule 6, shall be recovered from the salary of the Member in not more than 24 monthly installments within the term of his office as Member. The first such recovery shall be made from the month following the month in which the cheque is given to the Member.

(2) If for any reason, the recovery is not effected within the term of his as Member the amount outstanding shall be recovered from his pension.

THE TAMIL NADU PAYMENT OF SALARIES ACT, 1951
(TAMIL NADU ACT XX OF 1951)
AND
THE RULES FRAMED THEREUNDER

PART - II

THE TAMIL NADU MINISTERS TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE
RULES, 1951

(G.O.Ms.No.42, Finance, dated 23rd January 1952)

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 9 of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Salaries Act, 1951 (Tamil Nadu Act XX of 1951), the Governor of Tamil Nadu hereby makes the following rules:-

RULES

1. These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu Ministers Travelling Allowance Rules, 1951.

12.(1) (a) The Chief Minister ³ or the Deputy Chief Minister may, when he travels by rail, reserve a saloon or tourist car;

(b) The security staff and the personal staff accompanying the Chief Minister ³ or the Deputy Chief Minister may travel with the Chief Minister ³ or the Deputy Chief Minister in the saloon or the tourist car;

(c) The security staff and the personal staff though entitled to travel by first class, shall not purchase separate tickets, if they travel with the Chief Minister ³ or the Deputy Chief Minister in the saloon or the tourist car since the expenditure relating to the travel in the saloon or the tourist car is being met by the Government; and

(d) The claims in the travelling bills of the security staff and the personal staff be restricted only to the daily allowance admissible for the journey if they travel with the Chief Minister³ or the Deputy Chief Minister in the saloon or the tourist car.

²(e) One person may travel with the Chief Minister³ or the Deputy Chief Minister in any mode of travel in the same class in which the Chief Minister ³ or the Deputy Chief Minister travels without payment of any fare.

(2) A Minister may, when he travels by rail, reserve a two-berthed or four-berthed first class compartment or an air-conditioned coupe or a four-berthed air-conditioned compartment for himself, if he deems it necessary to do so.

^{1.} Vide G.O.Ms.No.980, Public (Establishment-I L.W.), dated 31st May 1990 (Wifh effect from 27th January 1989)

^{2.} Vide G.O.Ms.No.1430, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 12th December 1996 (Wifh effect from 13th May 1996)

^{3.} Vide G.O.Ms.No.1292, Public (Establishment-I and Legislature), dated 31st December 2009 (Wifh effect from 29th May 2009)

3. A Minister, not travelling in a reserved compartment, may draw a single fare of the class by which he actually travels (including air-conditioned class) and, in addition, fractional fare calculated at forty five paise for every ten kilometres or part thereof, if the part exceeds five kilometers, but he shall himself pay for his private servants and personal luggage.

4. (1) When a Minister travels in a reserved compartment, the charge for the compartment shall be borne by the Government department concerned, subject to adjustment with the Railway Administration, as hereinafter provided and the Minister may draw fractional fare calculated at ¹forty-five paise for every ten kilometers, or part thereof, if the part exceeds five kilometers.

¹(4) The fares paid by the persons travelling with the Minister shall be adjusted as follows:-

(a) When the number of persons occupying the compartment (including the Minister) exceeds the minimum number of fares for which the compartment can be reserved for a member of the public, the fares for the number of occupants in excess of such minimum shall be retained by the Railway Administration.

(b) Fares which are not so retained shall be credited to the Government department concerned by deduction from the bill submitted to it by the Railway Administration.

¹. Vide G.O.Ms.No.392, Public (Elections-IV), dated 25th February 1970.

¹(5) Before beginning his journey in the reserved compartment, the Minister shall have the number and the other details or the tickets, purchased for the persons travelling with him in the compartment, entered by the station master of the station from which his journey is commenced on the form of requisition for reservation and issue of the special ticket.

¹(6) If any person travels with the Minister in the reserved compartment after the issue of the special ticket to the Minister, the number and the other details of the tickets purchased for such person shall be invariably noted by the Minister or an officer authorised by him on his behalf, on the special ticket issued by the Railway with the following certificates:-

“Certified that the fares have been duly paid for.....
..... first-class passengers travelling in the same compartment holding ticket No..... from - to-”

Note:- The procedure in sub-rules (3) to (6) is laid down for the purpose of enabling the necessary adjustment to be made between the Government department concerned and the Railway Administration.

5. ²(1) A Minister may draw mileage, for journeys by road, at ³two rupees only per kilometer if he engages a taxi for the journey and at thirty two paise per kilometer, if he travels in any other conveyance, provided the cost of its use or propulsion is met by him.

(2) A Minister may also undertake journey by a taxi engaged by the District Collectors for which the expenditure will be met from Government funds by the District Collectors according to the powers delegated to them. For such journeys, a Minister is not eligible for mileage.

Note:- It is not the intention that any specific certificate as to the Ministers meeting the cost of its use of propulsion should be called for.
